

East Chicago and the Harbor

What Has Become of ? ?

DR. EDWARD E. JACOB, one time prominent dentist in the Field man building, is now in the paint business in Gary.

ABBE COHN and Dick Relland, the inseparable "twins" when boys here are now prominent consulting engineers in the East.

JACK SPELLACY, master mechanic at the American Steel Foundries and candidate for mayor in 1904 when he took on the name of "Sweet Moline," is now connected with the Illinois Steel at South Chicago.

LOUIE PONCHER, who used to be owner of the East Chicago Produce Co., is now in the same business at Kenosha, Wis.

Safety Board Meeting

Information differs as to the importance of a meeting of the East Chicago Board of Safety to be held this evening.

This is said to be an adjourned session of the meeting held Monday when the resignation of Joseph Penicka, plain clothes man of the Harbor, was accepted by the board. According to the minutes of Monday evening's meeting, officer Penicka is quoted to have said: "I don't care for either Chief Struss or Capt. O'Neil." This statement is substantiated by an affidavit signed by three officers on the East Chicago police force.

Under rule 20, which covers in subordination while on duty, Chief Struss demanded Penicka's resignation. Penicka's vociferous manner—"talked too much"—has won him the gate.

It is asserted that the business of the safety board will be along the same lines as Monday evening.

Coroner's Inquest

Testimony of eye witnesses to place the responsibility for the death of Josephine Martin, aged mother-in-law of John (Chalk) McMahon, will be given at the inquest.

The Day BEFORE You Need Help

After you are sick you can call a doctor.

After you are in trouble you can call a lawyer.

But after a fire, an accident or a theft you cannot call an insurance expert. HE can only help you BEFORE you need him.

Insurance prevents your needing help. It prepares the day before an eventuality. TODAY, when all is WELL, you need to arrange your insurance.

We should be glad to talk with you on any insurance matters. May we talk with you TODAY?

TURK LEADER PREFERS WESTERN GARB TO NATIVE OR MILITARY DRESS AT FRONT

Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the most interesting figure in the world news these days, prefers plain civilian garb of a distinctly western tinge to the more gaudy and striking native dress or military costume. This photo, taken since the near east situation became of international moment, shows Pasha in conference with Gen. Ismet Pascha, leader in the field of Kemal's Nationalist troops.

Mahon, when she was run down by an automobile driven by Joseph Hartley, Jr. and later died as a result of the injuries received, will be heard at a Coroner's inquest to be held before Dr. Townsend next week. The inquest is being postponed until the daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. John McMahon, have returned from the home of the deceased in South Dakota.

Joseph Hartley is held with an open charge to the East Chicago court on his own recognizance.

Brzink In Court

The evidence was too strong against Joseph Brzink of 4310 Walsh avenue when facing charges of violating the eighteenth amendment, before Judge Twyman in the East Chicago City court yesterday. For the five gallons of "moon" concealed in his place of business the Judge fined Joe $120 and sentenced him to 35 days in jail.

Joy-rider Held

Borrowing his friend's car to take a joy-ride, Frank Avers of 3822 Decatur street, Indiana Harbor, was arrested in St. Louis with the machine this week and brought back here yesterday by Capt. Nick Makar of the Harbor station. Avers is being held on a charge of grand larceny and will be arraigned in the East Chicago City court this afternoon. Harry Yakovach a Japanese cook, the owner of the automobile, will appear against the defendant.

Burglar Enters Lewins

When winter comes some wonder where their summer wages have gone.

Probably the man who broke into the Lewin department store at 702 Chicago avenue, last night and fitted himself out from skin to top cover, was in this boat. Now he is all set for any weather.

The burglar is said to have selected some of the best and choicest garments and then used the store for making his change. This was in evidence when the proprietor opened his place this morning to find merchandise strewn from one end of the store to the other. Upon one of the benches in the shoe department was found the old outfit of the thief and two abandoned suit cases crammed full of silk dresses.

From the appearance of the working clothes of the man left behind, the police are of the opinion that the burglar was colored.

Barker's Robbed

Furniture, rugs and other merchandise to the value of $400 were stolen last night from the store rooms of Barker Furniture store at Watling and Grapevine Blvd., Indiana Harbor, by burglars who gained entrance to the place by breaking in the side door. One Victrola valued at $125, one roll of rugs that were priced at $200 and other small furniture not yet accounted for were reported missing to the Harbor police.

Smudge Blaze

A smudge fire caused slight damage in the flat above Sam Goleber's store at 416 Vernon avenue, East Chicago, last night. Old rags that had caught afire from an overheated stove were extinguished without causing any apparent damage to the building.

No Appointments Yet

No appointments to fill the vacancies on the East Chicago Park Board have been made as yet, according to the announcement of Mayor Frank Callahan.

The selecting of the fourth member on the board to succeed Mrs. Anna Judge, who resigned when moving with her family to Chicago, will be in the side door.

DINNER STORIES

A patient, escaped from an insane asylum, was at last discovered in earnest conversation with a colored guard at a military camp.

"Why, man, what's the matter with you? You're trembling and the sweat is pouring off your face." "Yassir," gulped the negro. "Boss, after last, I been talkin' to me five minutes I knowed one of us was crazy, and now I've found out it's him, I see so relieved—so relieved!" — American Legion Weekly.

"So this is a spirit photograph?" said the client. "Yes," replied the spirit. "That's a speaking likeness of our uncle, Christopher Tooling."

"But his name was Hiram Botsforth."

"Ahem! He must have sneaked into heaven under an alias."

Twin City News Notes

The Plymouth club held their regular meeting Monday evening in the church parlors. The important event of the evening was the election of officers, which to the delight of all, resulted in the re-election of Miss Margaret Canine as president; Miss Agnes Jones as vice president; Miss Vera Sweigart as secretary and Mrs. Harry Collins as treasurer. The club voted to furnish milk to the Harrison school and all enjoyed the musical program in which all members joined in the singing, led by Miss Norene and the piano numbers by Miss Dorothy Spencer. There were fifty-four members who partook of and enjoyed the dainty refreshments served by the committee. The next meeting will be a masquerade Hal-loween party Monday evening, Oct. 23rd, which is being looked forward to with much pleasure by the members.

Mrs. Walter Bassett, of Chicago, Miss Jane McCuskey of Olcott avenue, represented the East Chicago Pythian Sisters last week at their state convention at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Edward Fedulke, of 4736 Olcott avenue, will entertain at a benefit card party Thursday evening for the Church of the Good Shepherd. An invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Farham of Minneapolis, formerly of this city, have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs of Forsythe avenue.

The Civic Department of the Indiana Harbor and East Chicago Woman's club will hold a joint meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the community room of the East Chicago Methodist church. Dr. E. J. Davis, a representative from the chamber of commerce will give a talk. Mrs. Frank Stephens of Indiana Harbor will render a vocal solo. She will be accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Harry Bloom-burg of Olcott avenue. The high school orchestra will play and the address of the afternoon will be by Mrs. J. Paul Goode, of Chicago, followed by a reception and refreshments. This is the first meeting of the club year for this department and the program is very inviting, to which all members of both clubs are invited.

Despite the inclement weather of yesterday afternoon the funeral of the late Mrs. Louise Davis Tappan was largely attended. A short service at the home of the parents, Mr.

BLACK LACE GOWN IS GOOD FOR ALL DRESS-UP AFFAIRS

Women with limited incomes and therefore limited wardrobe will be glad to know that black lace gowns are fashionable again, for there is nothing as serviceable and at the same time as dressy as black lace. It may be worn to the formal afternoon affairs, the informal dinner as well as the formal dinner and to any kind of an evening function. This is one of the many pretty styles developed in lace for the coming season.

and Mrs. John Davis on North Baring avenue preceded the services at the East Chicago Methodist church at 2:00 o'clock, conducted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. G. F. Craig, followed by the Eastern Star service around the casket of their departed sister, instead of at the grave as is usually customary, this being due to the bad weather. The beautiful floral offerings were silent tokens of the high esteem in which Mrs. Tappan was held in this community, only a few of the flowers being taken into the church. The associates of North Baring avenue. Mrs. M. Gallagher and her nephew, R. H. Smith, were Chicago shoppers yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Collins entertained in honor of their son, Fred, Jr.'s twelfth birthday, at a surprise party last evening at their home at Mark. It was a real surprise as the young man had been told they would go to the Tivoli to celebrate the occasion and when 13 of his boy friends walked in he was very much taken back. The evening was spent with bunco and contests. Those winning high scores in bunco were: Douglas Schultz, John Humphrey, Junior Hall and consolation Harold Hunley. In the guessing contest, Franklin Glenn and in the drawing contest Daniel Barr showed the greatest skill. When scores had been counted and prizes awarded the boys were invited to the dining room where Mrs. Collins had spread a delicious two course luncheon, which only boys know how to enjoy. Fred Jr. received a number of very pretty and useful gifts by which he will remember his twelfth birthday anniversary.

Mrs. L. B. Faust of North Magoun avenue is in the city this afternoon attending the matinee at the Studebaker, where she, in company with Chicago friends will see "The Gold Fish."

Miss Gladys Evans, of Fir street, underwent an operation for appendicitis yesterday at Mercy hospital, Gary.

A BUSINESS MOTIVE POWER

The time must come when all businesses will consider the advisability of advertising in the same spirit that a manufacturer ponders over the advisability of adopting a new machine. One does not install a piece of labor-saving mechanism because it suits his fancy; but because the efficiency of the business requires it.

He expects the new machine to reduce his cost to operate—perhaps to make a better product—and thus aid him in meeting competition and making larger profits.

Advertising is exactly similar. The man who refuses to consider it as a possible expedient, simply shuts his eyes on one of the problems of his business. He might as well ignore the banks as sources of credit when he has need to borrow capital.

On the other hand, the man who looks to advertising to checkmate all weaknesses and shortcomings of his business and to carry it along to victory despite these, has a childlike faith in the miraculous.

Advertising will not make his product or his service any better than they are; but it will bring him the full benefits of their merits. It will not eliminate wastefulness in his factory or his store; but it will reduce his cost to operate. It will not make illogical selling methods successful; but it will assist good selling methods, and often point the way for improving them.

Advertising is the most inexpensive motive power that the manufacturer or merchant can buy today. It is a form of stimulus that brings excellent returns on the investment.
